Dear Friends of Cleopas,

I write this to thank you once more for your great support for my ongoing project of publishing my thesis, "Obedient in Gethsemane." Blazej has been letting me know that this support is not just financial but that you have always been praying for me and the success of the project. I am very delighted and grateful to you all. How I wish I could have the opportunity, some day, to be able to thank you personally (i.e., in your physical presence). In the meantime, I continue to pray God to bless you and reward you all for this great kindness and love. You make me keep in mind more and more our oneness in working for the kingdom of God. Also, I just checked your link (<https://cleopas.biblica.sk/skromne/>) and I recognised my name in Slovak as Timotheja, Jesus (as o Ježišovej?), Obedient (as poslušnosti?), Gethsemane (as Getsemani). You remain forever in my mind and heart and prayers. Let us remain united in praying for each other.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

Timothy
